2016 ANNUAL CONVENTION

AMERICAN PSYCHOLOGICAL ASSOCIATION

PROGRAM PREVIEW

Denver, Colorado
August 4–7, 2016

Register online beginning April 15, 2016
www.apa.org/convention

A supplement to the APA Monitor on Psychology
This enhanced program preview gives you more information sooner about the 2016 APA convention. Find out what’s new in 2016—get a first look at the collaborative programming and a sneak peek at some of the internationally known speakers and their cross-cutting and cutting-edge sessions and topics.

*What are collaborative programs?
A centerpiece of the convention, collaborative programs involve content combinations from two or more divisions, with a focus on innovative and cross-cutting themes.

You’ll find much more information online: Denver attractions, registration and workshop fees, continuing education sessions and workshops, hotel information, transportation and airline details, refund policy, arrangements for people with disabilities, child care options, and much more. Visit www.apa.org/convention beginning April 15 at 10 a.m. EDT.
FEATURED IN 2016

Unlimited CE Credit at Convention
More than 300 convention sessions will be designated as Continuing Education (CE) Sessions this year. Earn unlimited CE credits by attending as many of these CE Sessions as you can for a single fee. CE Sessions are identified by this logo in the convention program and will be held at the Colorado Convention Center. Save even more by taking advantage of the advance fee when you register for the convention by June 30.

Note: CE Sessions are separate from the 4- and 7-hour APA CE Workshops offered at additional fees and scheduled at the Sheraton Denver Downtown Hotel (for more on CE Workshops, see p. 11).

The Quest
Use the mobile app to take part in a friendly competition to learn about the convention in fun and exciting ways—and to compete for daily and grand prizes.

APA Film Festival
Thirty hours of films and other media-related programming related to psychology from the U.S. and around the globe. Awards will be given for excellence in three categories: feature length, short, and avant-garde.

Facilities
Meetings are scheduled in the Colorado Convention Center, the Hyatt Regency Denver at the Colorado Convention Center, and the Sheraton Denver Downtown Hotel.

A $100 discount on the full registration fee for all full APA members attending their first APA convention.

Mobile App
To make your convention experience even better, APA is providing online and mobile tools to help you search for sessions, events, and speakers and create your personal schedule. Look for the online convention program mobile app—with expanded building and exhibit hall maps—in June. Opt in to the app and opt out of the big book.

KEEP IN MIND...
Business casual is acceptable dress during the convention.

SPECIAL EVENTS

Opening Session
Thursday, August 4, 5:00–6:30 p.m.
APA President Susan McDaniel, PhD, looks forward to welcoming you to Denver for the 124th APA Annual Convention. The opening session will feature a thought-provoking keynote presentation by social psychologist Jonathan Haidt, PhD, whose research focuses on morality—its emotional foundations, cultural variations, and developmental course. He uses his research to help people understand and respect the moral motives of people with whom they disagree. The 2016 APA Award for Outstanding Lifetime Contributions to Psychology will be presented to Eduardo Salas, PhD, for his ground-breaking work on the science of teams. And finally, you won’t want to miss an inspired performance by Colorado transcendental folk group Elephant Revival.

APA Baseball Night:
Colorado Rockies vs. Los Angeles Dodgers
Thursday, August 4, 6:40 p.m.
Tickets are limited. Enjoy a night at Coors Field with the Colorado Rockies.

A Night at the Denver Museum of Nature & Science
Friday, August 5, 7:00–9:00 p.m.
Tickets are required. Join your colleagues for a fun-filled evening at the Denver Museum of Nature & Science—the Rocky Mountain region’s leading resource for informal science education. APA will have exclusive access to exhibits featuring North American Indian cultures and magnificent wildlife dioramas devoted to Africa, South America, Australia, and North America. Food and beverage will be included in the ticket price.

APA Presidential Address
Saturday, August 6, 11:00–11:50 a.m.
Susan H. McDaniels, PhD
Charting Psychology’s Future in Health Care and Beyond

APA Presidential Programming
Featured sessions include topics focused on promoting health for individuals, families, and organizations. Presidential Programming sessions are scheduled on the following days:
Friday, August 5
1:00–4:00 p.m.
Saturday, August 6
2:00–6:00 p.m.
